Hampton-Court, September 20.

AN humble Addreſs of the Grand Jurors of the City and County of New-York, at a Supream Court held for the Province of New-York at the ſaid City, on the firſt Tueſday in June, 1717. having been tranſmitted from thence, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Joſeph Addiſon, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

The following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty by Jer. Dummer, Eſq; being introduced by the Right Honourable Joſeph Addiſon, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Governour, Council and Repreſentatives of the Province of Maſſachuſet's Bay in New-England.

An humble Addreſs of the Governour and Company of His Majeſty's Colony of Connecticut.

An humble Addreſs of His Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects the Miniſters of the Goſpel in New-England, at their Annual Convention.

Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Berne, Sept. 18. The Commiſſioners on the Part of the Biſhop of Porentru, and of this Canton, did, in their late Conference at Buren, agree upon a Project for an intire Accommodation of the Differences between them, on the Account of the Town of Neuveville, but referring their Agreement to the Approbation and Ratification of their reſpective Principals; which having been given by both Parties, there is a final and abſolute Pacification of that Matter. The Tenour of this Project was, that the Canton of Berne ſhould write firſt to the Biſhop, to acquaint him with their Deſire of ſeeing all Differences ended between them, and his Subjects of Neuveville reſtored to his Favour and their ancient Privileges, under a Promiſe on his Part not to ſuffer any of them to be infringed for the future; to which the Biſhop was to return a poſitive and full Anſwer, importing his Promiſe and Conſent to what they deſired. This has been done accordingly on both Sides to their mutual Content, and to the general Satisfaction of the Inhabitants of Neuveville. This Canton has lately written a Letter to his Imperial Majeſty, to congratulate him upon the great Victory of Prince Eugene over the Turks before Belgrade, and upon the Surrender of that Place; to which they add their Requeſt for paying the Arrears due to their Troops, which have been in Garriſon at Fribourg in Germany, and which his Imperial Majeſty diſmiſſed from his Service the beginning of this Month. They have likewiſe written to Prince Eugene upon the ſame Subject. The Troops of this State, which have been lately disbanded in Holland, arrived here ſome Days ago; but as they did not make above 200 Men, with their Officers, it is judged that the reſt of the eight Companies which have been broken, have taken Service elſewhere. They were received here with the uſual Formality, a Speech being made to them by a Counſellor appointed for that Purpoſe by the State, who thanked them for their good Service in the late Wars, and the Honour they had done their Country, and then diſcharged them from their military Oaths.

Vienna, Sept. 15. Our laſt Letters from the Army ſay, that Prince Eugene was going to view Semendria, in order to ſettle the Winter-Quarters; and when that was done the Army would break up, and the Prince come away; ſo that he does not ſeem to have any Thoughts at preſent of penetrating ſo far into Boſnia as was at firſt intended; or at leaſt what may be attempted of that Kind towards enlarging the Quarters, will be done by ſeparate Detachments. This Court has News from Sardinia of the 23d paſt, when the Spaniards were preparing to attack Cagliari.

Bruſſels, Sept. 20. The Marqueſs de Prié has received Advice from Flanders, that the States of that Province are not only preparing for the Emperour's Inauguration, as Sovereign of the Auſtrian Netherlands; but for a Proof of their Zeal and Loyalty, have, on this Occaſion, voted by a great Majority, a Subſidy of two Millions of Florins, and have appointed a Deputation of ſome of the chief Perſons among them, to wait on his Excellency with the Act of Conſent to this Subſidy, before that Ceremony is performed in their Province. His Excellency is extreamly pleaſed with this Inſtance of that Province's Duty and Affection to their Sovereign, and 'tis hoped the Example will have a good Influence on the Province of Brabant, by diſpoſing the Nations or Communities of this City to agree likewiſe upon a conſiderable Subſidy, though hitherto thoſe Communities continue refractory. The Marqueſs de Prié gave Audience Yeſterday to Deputies from the States of Brabant, who repreſented to him, that the Time appointed for the Ceremony of the Inauguration, which was fixed to the 27th of this Month, is too ſhort; for, notwithſtanding an extraordinary Number of Workmen are employed, they cannot be ready ſo ſoon with the requiſite Preparations, and therefore they deſired his Excellency to defer it a few Days; accordingly he has put it off to the firſt of next Month.

Hague, Sept. 28. Yeſterday the Deputies of the States General, in a Conference with Baron Heems, the Imperial Miniſter, delivered to him the Reſolutions which their High Mightineſſes had taken, on the Points which ſtill retard the Execution of the Barrier-Treaty; and they afterwards communicated the ſame to the Lord Cadogan and Mr. Whitworth, in another Conference. M. Peſters, Miniſter of the States General, is immediately to return to Bruſſels to renew the Negociations on the ſaid Treaty with the Marqueſs de Prié. M. de Chateauneuf, the French Miniſter, has received Letters from the Count de la Marque, with Advice that Mr. Jackſon has been ſet at Liberty, on Count Gyllenborg's Arrival at Gottenbourg; but having deſired to ſtay ſome Time at Stockholm to ſettle his private Affairs, it has been granted him.

Hampton-Court, Sept. 20. Yeſterday Count Volkra, Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperour, had his private Audience of Leave of his Majeſty, to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted (in the Abſence of the Maſter of the Ceremonies) by John Inglis, Eſq; Aſſiſtant-Maſter of the Ceremonies: And afterwards had his private Audience of Leave of their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, in their ſeveral Appartments; to both which he was conducted by the Aſſiſtant-Maſter of the Ceremonies.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint John Fuller, Eſq; to be Conſul at Leghorne.
